Pioneers Hold Their Annual Meeting and Elect Officers for the Year.

A Banquet to Wind Up the Meeting at the Hotel Broadwater To-night.

The Major Budd Stockholders Meet - Mr Fine Sat Down Upon by Sam Schwab.

The Montana Pioneer association hele its annual meeting at the court house yesterday and the men who came to Montana in 1864 and before that time cordially greeted each other and swapped yarns about early days. There was quite a large gathering. The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock, President Wilbur F. Sanders presiding and Cornelius Hedges, secretary, also present. The minits of last year's meeting were read and approved and the members got down to business, dispensing with speeches until to-night, when after the walnuts and wine they will have a big talk at the Hotel Broadwater, orders having been given for a pi-oneer's banquet to be ready at 7 o'clock.

The following new members were unanimously elected: David Cohen, F. J. Palmer, Wm. Berkin, John McGuin, James Hodge, John Anderson, D. C. Butier, John McCune, A. J. Stevens and Feter Ronan.

THE MAJOR BUDD.

A Stockholders' Meeting and Officers Elected for the Year.

The annual meeting of the Major Budd Mining company was held at the Cosmopolitan hotel yesterday, at which about 280,000 shares of stock were represented 200,000 shares being treasury stock. It had been generally supposed that the fight between the Fine and Schwab factions had been ended when the late difficulty was suit were withdrawn from court, but street, the following list of properties: at yesterday's session Fine appeared of which he secured as proxies. Welch was in with Fine's scheme, and for a few minutes Schwab was knocked out. After he recovered he calmly reviewed the situation and nominated his ticket, saying: "Gentlemen, there's my ticket and it is going through; I shall not vote for any other ticket. I am voting 160,000 shares and you are voting 105,000; I have too much money in this thing to let it out of my hands, and if I don't vote there will be no quorum present; I am not particular whether you elect officers now or next Christmas, but if you insist on it, here is the ticket that goes."

The future plans of the freer from rant and bombost than any play battery were discussed, and a strong teeling against disbanding was developed. The company believes an effort was made, night this week and a Saturday matinee. in ignoring them in the distribution of the appropriation, to cause them to disband that the battery might go to Butte. Each regiment is allowed only one battery, and as Helena has had the battery for the past twenty months they intend holding on to it. The only person that can muster them out is the governor, who, they say, shows no disposition to interfera with them. no disposition to interfere with them. In view of the fact that one of the members said he heard six months ago that the battery's requisition would not be granted, they have determined to pull together and are now more united than ever.
